Chief Finance Officer – Family Office

Description

An exceptional opportunity for a commercially astute finance leader to join a creative, fast-growing portfolio spanning film, publishing, brand partnerships, hospitality, and consumer products.*

This privately owned group combines creativity and commerce — delivering projects at the intersection of culture, entertainment, and luxury. The CFO will play a pivotal role in bringing financial clarity, control, and strategic direction across multiple ventures.

The Role

We're looking for a hands-on, entrepreneurial finance leader who can balance rigour with agility.

You'll lead group-wide financial management, build robust systems, and partner directly with founders and senior leadership to drive performance and growth.

Responsibilities

Key areas of focus:

- * Oversee multi-entity finance operations, reporting, and cashflow
- * Streamline accounting processes and implement strong controls
- * Lead budgeting, forecasting, and commercial analysis
- * Support funding, investments, and new venture structuring
- * Provide concise, insightful financial reporting to senior stakeholders
- * Manage and mentor a small finance team, fostering collaboration and accountability

Qualifications

- * Qualified accountant (ACA / ACCA / CIMA or equivalent)
- * Experience in creative, media, luxury, or consumer sectors
- * Hands-on operator comfortable with complexity and change
- * Strong communicator who can translate financial data into clear insight
- * Pragmatic, grounded, and commercially minded
- * Confident working directly with entrepreneurial founders

Job Benefits

This is a rare chance to step into a pivotal leadership role within a group that values creativity, integrity, and impact.

You'll have the autonomy to shape the finance function and directly influence strategic decisions across an exciting, evolving portfolio.
