Interim FD Bristol

Description

Our client a growing energy sector business, is looking to recruit an FD, initially on an interim basis but with a view to going permanent, we are handling both aspects of their recruitment.

Working for a unique SME company based in Bristol,, this is a unique opportunity to become part of an organisation that is really going somewhere.

Your new role

This is a truly exciting time to join the organisation at a key stage in their development. You'll be joining into a company reporting directly to the Managing Director / CEO

As part of your role, you will contribute to the ongoing strategic programme, helping to maximise existing investments and make the best and most effective decisions moving forwards. Upon starting with the business, you will assume responsibility for all finance matters, IT development and everything related to corporate governance including Company Secretarial duties. As a key post holder within the organisation, you'll work closely with the senior team.

Inheriting a small, established team, you will be a key commercial spearhead, working closely in partnership with the MD/CEO to take the business forwards, providing ideas, strategic insight and challenging where appropriate to drive change.

Responsibilities

Key duties and responsibilities:

Develop and implement financial and accounting strategies & policies across all aspects of the current business.

Provide analysis and advice to the Board on the financial and risk management aspects of future investments and developments.

Accountable for the development, analysis and reporting of the company's management accounting information for Board.

Ensure compliance and best practice with all Financial Accounting and Audit requirements.
