Turnaround Consultant – Cambridge

Description

Job Summary: We are seeking a highly experienced Senior Turnaround Consultant to work closely with our CEO and CFO during a critical transitional phase. The ideal candidate will have extensive global experience in larger, compliance-focused corporations, with expertise in PLC-like reporting and shareholder management.

This role involves conducting a comprehensive assessment and providing ongoing support based on the recommendations. Additionally, the consultant will play a pivotal role in capturing and transferring knowledge before the CFO's departure in May.

This is an interim role based in Cambridge

Responsibilities

- Assessment and Recommendation: Conduct a thorough evaluation of our current processes and systems. Validate findings and present actionable recommendations to the CEO and CFO.
- Ongoing Support: Provide ongoing support and advice based on the recommendations made during the assessment phase.
- Knowledge Capture/Transfer: Assist in capturing and transferring crucial knowledge before the CFO's departure.
- Global Operations: Show flexibility and willingness to travel to our global offices as needed.
- Shareholder Management: Demonstrate strong shareholder management skills with the ability to present comfortably to senior stakeholders and conduct business reviews.
- CEO Rapport and Influence: Build a strong rapport with the new CEO and provide advice and influence when necessary.
- Recruitment Assistance: Assist in interviewing for a new CFO and advise on potential candidate introductions.
- Team Leadership: Provide continuity and motivation to the existing team amidst organizational changes.
- System and Process Improvements: Embed and improve systems and processes, with a focus on enhancing our operations in the U.S.

Qualifications

- Proven turnaround experience, preferably at the executive level.
- Extensive global experience in a larger, compliance-driven corporation.
- Strong skills in shareholder management and executive presentation.
- Demonstrated ability to build rapport with high-level executives and influence decision-making.
- Willingness to travel internationally as required.
- Proven track record of leading teams through transitional periods.
- Experience in system and process improvements, particularly in the U.S. context.
